Leading Change: The Sacred Way

Whether the voice of a movement, a teacher, or a key implementer of deeply needed services, you are doing sacred work as a leader. But how do you tap into that quality and power in real, practical ways?

This two-day workshop will equip you to meet the challenges of your work and the troubles of our world with powerful wisdom and equanimity. The Sacred Way is a retreat for your soul while teaching practical tools for you and your organization to access ancient, natural gifts we all possess within — specifically for the context of leading important change.

Let 2022 mark the beginning of your best stage in leadership ... and the most robust era for your organization in achieving its mission!

A renewing fundamental shift in your perspective
and readiness to lead
